They travel not as the flying ship in silence or in fear, But whoop and holler,
And yell and shout
For all the world to hear.

Traveling in a solid train of Pullman cars, with a palatial Southern Pacific diner, the Men Who Carry the Message of El Paso, a noisy bunch, arrived from the west this morning at 8:19.

No cannons boomed and no bells were pealed to announce the arrival of the party, but neither bells nor cannon were needed, as the boys from El Paso City were fully capable of announcing themselves and they had not been in Albuquerque seventeen minutes before every one in town knew it and crowds were hurrying stationward to extend the glad hand to the early morning visitors, whose striped hats and natty badges were conspicuous in the throng of home people.

At the station to greet the party were the president of the Albuquerque Commercial club, Mr. George Rosenman, the secretary of the club, Mr. Thomas J. Naylor, a large delegation of club members and citizens generally.

The mayor was not there; 8 a. m. is early for Mayor Sellers whose duties require him to be mayor twenty-four hours every day, and who gets his sleep in the early hours of the morning.

But the mayor arrived all right.

made a speech of welcome to the visitors and formally received the mammoth master key to El Paso, presented by Hon. Eugene Harris, one of the three members of the El Paso expedition who confess to being orators.

Immediately upon the arrival of the train the El Paso missionaries formed in line and headed by the Twenty-second United States Infantry band, marched through the streets of Albuquerque and back to the lawn in front of the Alvarado.

Here the visitors were formally welcomed to Albuquerque by Colonel E. W. Dohson, who temporarily represented Mayor Sellers, and by President George Kaseman on behalf of the Commercial club.

The key to the city of El Paso was presented by Mr. Harris after an eloquent and witty speech in which he urged closer business relations between Albuquerque and El Paso and extended a cordial invitation to the people of Albuquerque and of New Mexico to attend the Os Apple celebration which occurs in El Paso October 23d to 25th, and which is to be the greatest thing ever pulled off in El Paso, which is going some, since El Paso is noted for pulling off great things, including an occasional battle with real bullets and real blood.

The presentation speech had scarcely been concluded when Mayor Sellers and the members of the city council appeared on the scene, the mayor breathless, but the councilmen calm and dignified as befits members of such an august body.

The mayor was sorry to be late on such a glorious occasion but made up for his tardiness in the heartiness of his welcoming speech, which was a peach, and made the men from El Paso, proud as they are of their own frontier community, wish for the moment that they could stay in Albuquerque at least during the term of Colonel Sellers. The colonel told the visitors that they were welcome, that the town was theirs, that people from Albuquerque had no keys to the city of Albuquerque but to the hearts of its people. The speaker depicted the shortness of the visit and implored them to change their schedule so as to allow a stay of a full day here, and he brought tears into the eyes of even the most hardened of the El Pasoans by telling them what they were missing by leaving before they even had an opportunity to drive over Albuquerque and its suburbs. The schedule of the train was ironclad however, meetings had been arranged for today and several of the towns in the lower Rio Grande valley and the visitors were forced to decline the mayor's pressing invitation.

Following the speech of the mayor the El Paso men proceeded to get acquainted and to entertain their hosts until train time, the first number on the entertainment program being selections from the Osapple quartette, a talented organization consisting of Parvin White, M. M. Hamblin, H. B.
Slater and James A. Dick. Following the singing the Twenty-second Infantry band, acknowledged to be one of the best if not the best musical organization in the United States army, gave a concert which was hugely enjoyed.

PURPOSES AND ITINERARY OF KEYNOTE BOOSTERS
The Keynote excursion left El Paso at 10:30 Sunday night a week ago and will reach home some time before midnight tonight. In all, the keynote have visited twenty-five towns and cities in New Mexico and Arizona. Among the towns visited are the following: Silver City, Deming, Lordsburg, Albuquerque and the towns in the Rio Grande valley in New Mexico; and Clifton, Morenci, Bowles, Globe, Miami, Courtland, Douglas, Blythe, Nogales, Tucson, Phoenix, Florence, Mesa, Prescott and Williams and the Grand Canyon in Arizona.

In every city and town they visited the excursionists received the glad hand of welcome, the everywhere there were indications that the ten thousand dollars expended on the swing around the circle would be returned many fold in the months and years to come.

The El Paso men reached here this morning fresh after a good day's rest at the Grand Canyon yesterday and eager for a whirlwind finish on the last day of the campaign for a greater El Paso.

R. P. March, secretary of the El Paso chamber of commerce, one of the foremost boosters with the excursion, said today that the trip was not made for the purpose of taking away trade from one of the cities visited, but for the purpose of developing El Paso's legitimate wholesale district.

On this trip our orators have endeavored to impress upon the people that we are not out for local business," said Mr. March. "We advise the people in Phoenix, in Prescott, in Albuquerque and in every other town in the two states to patronize their home dealers, to keep the money at home. But when it comes to a question of buying outside of Albuquerque in wholesale quantities, we ask that El Paso wholesalers be given an opportunity to compete with wholesalers in Denver, Los Angeles, St. Louis and Dallas. El Paso is rapidly developing a large wholesale trade and this despite the fact that the trade in old Mexico has been cut off for more than a year. We believe that New Mexico and Arizona towns are in El Paso's wholesale trade territory and for this reason we organized the present trade excursion. It has been a grand success from the day we started until today. We have been successful in convincing local merchants that we are not out to grab any of their local business. Our party is made up of men who are either the heads of the wholesale houses in El Paso, or by their representatives. The wholesalers, or their representatives have had the opportunity on this trip to meet dealers in their lines of goods in the various towns and have also learned much about the country, railroad routes and rates, and in fact secured much information that will be of great value in trade extension work.

"El Paso is going right ahead.
There isn't a street, a store or a vacant house in El Paso. We have held our own and more despite the trouble across the border. Our bank clearings for the last six months were greater than the six months of the year before. We are proud of the progress our city has made and intend to overlook no opportunity to continue the good work. We are distinctly with the reception tendered us in Albuquerque. We realize that it would have been on a larger scale if we arrived at a more convenient hour.
But in order to travel through the Rio Grande valley in daylight it was absolutely necessary that we arrive here at an early hour."

Among those with the Keynote Excursion are the following: James A.
Dick, of the James A. Dick Company; Robert Kraker, of the Kraker Co.; Zerk & Mayo Co.; Col. A. H. Stiles,

JAFFA BACK FROM THE SOUTH SURE OF SUCCESS

Republican Candidate for Congress Gets Cordial Reception in Grant, Luna and Socorro Counties.

Hon. Nathan Jaffa, Republican candidate for congress, arrived in Albuquerque this morning after a week spent in southern New Mexico. In course of which he has visited Grant, Luna, Dona Ana, Sierra and Socorro counties. Mr. Jaffa is here to attend the Masonic gatherings and to meet his friends and supporters in Albuquerque and Bernalillo county.

"I have had a very cordial reception throughout all of southern New Mexico," said Mr. Jaffa this morning.
"and I have come back from the week's trip more than ever confident that I will receive a majority of the votes on November 5th. Even in the Democratic stronghold I was accorded most gratifying receptions and unless the most careful observers with whom I talked are mistaken, the southern part of the state is going to not only greatly reduce the former Democratic vote but in the aggregate of the counties give majorities for Taft."

"It is surprising and gratifying to find how the sentiment for President Taft is growing in New Mexico. Everywhere I go I find men after men who in the early stages of the campaign was for Wilson or Roosevelt, or in doubt, now standing solidly for the return of the president to office.
The feeling is that we have had enough of unrest and disturbance and experiment—that the country, and particularly New Mexico, is so prosperous—that the outlook is so bright that we have no need for change, that change is dangerous and that President Taft is the man we want at the head of the government for the next four years. If sentiment throughout the country is swinging to President Taft as rapidly as it is in New Mexico, the president's election is sure."

Mr. Jaffa will be present tomorrow night at the initial meeting of the Taft-Jaffa club.

CIPES SANITARIUM BEING FURNISHED; OPENING SOON

Institution Now Being Finished Will Be Ready for Reception of Patients After November 1st.

A cartload of furniture for the Cipes sanitarium, ordered through Strong Brothers, of Albuquerque, arrived in the city from the east today and is being placed in the new institution, which is now rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for formal opening on November 1st. The furniture received today is of the mission style, with some of the articles finished in Italian.

The Cipes sanitarium, when completed, and furnished, will be one of the most modern in the west. The plant consists of an administration building and sixteen cottages. The cottages contain every accommodation, including steam heat and bath.
Dr. Cipes, who is building the sanitarium and who will personally direct its operation, has had many years experience in sanitarium work in New York and in Colorado. He selected Albuquerque as the place for the location of his sanitarium after fully investigating the climatic claims of every state in the west. Dr. Cipes believes that the Albuquerque climate is ideal for prevention and cure of tuberculosis and hopes to accomplish much good with the treatment administered in his institution.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN DYNAMITE HEARING

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald] Indianapolis, Oct. 21.—George Hagerty, Phillipsburg, N. J., an iron worker, a witness at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today, identified many letters between himself and J. J.
McNamara. In one of the letters a reference to "putting the bridge at Phillipsburg into the river" the government charges, was made by Hagerty as the result of a labor dispute.

Hagerty in 1906 was business agent of a local union at Easton, Pa. The prosecution asserted that acid was employed to destroy property prior to the use of dynamite and the testimony of Hagerty who is not a defendant is taken as showing an earlier motive for illegal interstate shipment of explosives.

IDAHO RANCHMAN SELF SLAIN IN POLICE CELL cutting his throat with a jack knife.

Ludwig was on his way from Idaho to visit his parents in Germany. In worrying about the trip his mind became unbalanced and he left the train at Galesburg and asked to be locked up in the city jail.

He had with him over $600 in currency and gold, besides a ticket through to New York.

SEEKS RELEASE OF JACK JOHNSON'S ALLEGED VICTIM

Attorney Applies for Writ of Habeas Corpus for Girl Held in Rockford Jail as Witness Against Negro.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald]
Chicago, Oct. 21.—Robert E. Cantwell, an attorney, today asked United States District Judge Carpenter for a writ of habeas corpus for Lucille Cameron, the Minneapolis girl, whose name has been connected with that of Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, and who is being held in the Rockford, Ill., jail in default of $25,000 bail as a witness before the federal grand jury.

Judge Carpenter announced that he would be unable to hear the petition until tomorrow. Inasmuch as the girl is to appear before the grand jury tomorrow, Attorney Cantwell withdrew his petition. He would not say whether he had been retained by Johnson.

AUSTRALIANS HAVE NO MORE USE FOR JOHNSON

Sydney, Australia, Oct. 21.—Jack Johnson will not fight in Australia.
Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, who had offered Johnson $50-000 for fights with Sam Langford and Sam McVey or Joe Jeannette, called today to W. W. Kelly, his representative in Chicago, to cancel all negotiations.
McIntosh explained that Johnson's part in the alleged abduction of Lucille Cameron, a white girl, had so angered the sporting men and public at large of Australia that the matches were no longer desirable.
